Technology, Business and Creating Opportunities.

Consultants for creating wealth, making money, investments, career security, entrepreneurship and money matters .

During the past 10 years or so, NC Airways provided expertise in aviation-related activities. The mentor, Naleen Chandra, now counsels aspirants aspiring for self-improvement during adverse circumstances. Based at Patna, India, NC Airways has been providing regular guidance for this through one or more ways on fields as varied as:

- Entrepreneurship Opportunities
- Investment Decisions based on analysis
- Make Money Online
- Career Security
- Renewable energy
- Media Publishing: News, Articles, and Reports

NC Airways bring to you more flexible options on your table. There are special packages for artists, craftsmen, skilled technicians and social workers, and all our connections on social media.

Having spent most part of our careers as Aircraft Maintenance Engineers, our interest areas have naturally been inclined towards science and technology in general, aviation in particular.

We compile and analyse all such info at one place. Wherever possible, we implement theories into practice also.

This website started as NC Classes (Mentor – N Chandra) guiding AME aspirants for DGCA, FAA, and EASA papers in 2007 and produced 100s of success stories. Against this backdrop, in view of the deteriorating education standards, corona, and other evolving economics and in a quest to find alternative solutions, this has evolved into its present shape. Today, young people can find valuable info and counseling here on career and business opportunities while following the proven “Earn-while-you-Learn” principles.

We are social.
